Our Week of Learning

Reading & Writing

In reading, we will be working on finding the central message of a story. Students will identify what the author wanted to teach us from the story. Students will also be using context clues to make meaning and comprehend stories.

Math

We are starting Topic 8 Tens and Ones. In this topic, students will get an understanding of place value. They are going to learn how to count 2 digit numbers in groups of tens with some left over.
